Announce for Tomorrow—Thursday The Mid-Season Sale of FASHIONABLE DRESSES

It is a sale of our own stock of very beautiful garments, and the reductions are unexaggerated and exactly as stated in this advertisement. It is not a sale of dresses picked up from the racks of a manufacturer and comprising the unsalable styles and discards of a season's business. Every one of the hundreds of garments in this sale is a new, choice, fashionable dress carefully selected by us for its intrinsic merit and bought by us at full price because it was worth exactly that.

This sale should meet with an enthusiastic response from those women who desire the highest class of ready-to-wear at reductions unobtainable elsewhere. We are not giving these dresses away. The price-cuts are justified because we will be compensated for the sacrifice of profit by the volume of business this sale will produce.

The assortment includes a complete representation of the models which are now recognized as the popular ones of the season. Dresses to grace the winter wardrobe and suitable for all occasions—street wear, afternoon wear, dinner gowns and semidress frocks. It is a lovely assortment, with pronounced style-tonic, rich in fabrics and smart in interpretation.

No dress will be sent on approval. No dress will be sent C. O. D.

1,400 JOBS OPEN TO EX-SOLDIERS

Positions Are in Various Navy Yards and Arsenals of United States.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Permanent government jobs to the number of 1,400 in a variety of trades and occupations are now open to former soldiers and sailors, at pay ranging from $3 a day with free board, to $15 a month and board, according to a bulletin issued by Col. Matthew C. Smith, general staff, in charge of the office of the assistant to the secretary of war at Washington, D. C., the central bureau for soldier employment. This is based on information received from the United States civil service commission.

These positions are in the various navy yards of the country, the ordnance plants, and in arsenals. Besides the large amount of unskilled labor required, there are plenty of jobs for electricians, carpenters, machinists, riveters, steam engineers, shipwrights, painters, stevedores, trackmen, sheet metal workers, tool makers, boiler makers, blacksmiths, caulkers, dock hands, engineers, shipkeepers, firemen, inspectors, masters, quartermasters, stokers, survey men and helpers of all kinds.

Such men are wanted in the yards at Charleston, S. C.; Key West, Fla.; Philadelphia, Pa.; Portsmouth, N. H.; Puget Sound, Wash., and Washington, D. C., as well as at the naval ordnance plant, South Charleston, W. Va.; United States proving ground, Aberdeen, Md., and at various government shops and arsenals under the engineering department at Albany, N. Y.; Cleveland, O.; Nashville, Tenn.; Newport, R. I.; New York city; Memphis, Tenn.; Portland, Ore.; Rock Island, Ill., and St. Louis, Mo. All are civil service positions and ex-service men under the law have the preference above others. The complete list of positions will be furnished to any applicant by writing to the United States civil service commission, Washington, D. C., for the bulletin entitled, "Opportunities for Government Employment." Applications should be mailed direct to the "Recorder, Labor Board U. S. Navy Yard," or the "Secretary, Board of Civil Service Examiners, Engineer Department at Large," or "U. S. Proving Ground," at the place where employment is desired. Men should not report at the plant for employment until they are called.

Postoffices throughout the country generally can furnish information at first hand. Local postmasters are supplied with the necessary blanks, and can refer all applicants to the nearest representative of the United States civil service commission, who has full details.

ESTATES OF TWO HIGH HUNS CONFISCATED

CASSEL, Germany, Nov. 3.—Two Germans, formerly of the nobility, who have been deprived by the new regime of the greater part of their estates, have been obliged to sue the new government for restoration or reimbursement. They are the Prince of Waldeck and Pyrmont and the Duke of Coburg-Gotha.

The former principality of Waldeck and Pyrmont is now governed by the Diet in Arolsen where the Prince owns

CALOMEL DYING FAST IN SOUTH

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Is Taking the Place of Dangerous Sickening Drug.

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels. Here's Dodson's guarantee: Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

ed before the revolution two castles and a vast domain of forest. After vainly offering to buy these from him, the Diet confiscated all the Prince's property promising to pay him what the courts should determine to be a fair price.

By one stroke of the pen the commissioners who now rule the new free state of Gotha, confiscated the property of the Duke of Coburg-Gotha estimated to be worth $5,000,000 marks and this without offer of remuneration. The commissioners who were Spartacists took forcible possession of the ducal buildings, estates and bank accounts and in 24 hours the Duke was stripped of everything he owned.

The other portion of the duchy, Coburg-Gotha, has reached a financial agreement with the Duke. Both Prince and Duke have sued the new government. In the case of the duke, the court which sits in Gotha has obtained a legal ruling from government attorneys that confiscation without remuneration is illegal, so that the duke is likely to recover his money or be paid for his property. After all, life for dukes, princes and other nobility in Germany today is unhappy.

BRITISH ARMY DOES AGRICULTURAL WORK

LONDON, Nov. 3.—The British army was doing something other than fight in the last year of the war, according to the army agricultural committee report made public today. It cultivated 4,645 acres of land in the country occupied by the home forces alone, and made a profit of about $50 an acre. In France thousands of acres were cultivated by the soldiers, and vegetables worth no less than $2,500,000 were produced.

BELGIANS AT WORK

BRUSSELS, Nov. 4.—The number of Belgian laborers out of work, which at the time of the armistice was 800,000, has been reduced to 300,000 while exports have reached one-fourth the pre-war total, M. Jaspars, minister of economie affairs, has told the chamber of deputies. He also said that Germany had wanted to send an army of German workers to restore the destroyed regions but that he had refused.
